Deer Creek Golf Club

Founded in 1971, Deer Creek Golf Club is consistently voted one of Northern Illinois' best places to play. The scenic layout, designed by Larry Packard, features aesthetically pleasing naturalized areas, immaculately manicured greens noted for their character, and four of the finest finishing holes in all of Chicagoland. Measuring 6905 yards from the black tees with a CDGA rating of 72.9, the course has provided a stern test as the host of qualifying for both the PGA and the Illinois Open, while its yardage of 5195 from the green tees proves friendly to beginning players. In between, blue and white tees offer a fair and enjoyable challenge regardless of ability. Deer Creek is a complete facility capable of meeting all your needs.
